Beautiful: World, Word and Walk

Psalm 19:1-14

Beautiful

“of a very high standard; excellent.”

Psalm 19 – “I take this to be the greatest poem in the Psalter and one of the greatest lyrics in the world.” – C.S. Lewis

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork. Day to day pours out speech, and night to night reveals knowledge. There is no speech, nor are there words, whose voice is not heard. Their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them he has set a tent for the sun, which comes out like a bridegroom leaving his chamber, and, like a strong man, runs its course with joy. Its rising is from the end of the heavens, and its circuit to the end of them, and there is nothing hidden from its heat.

Psalms 19:1-6

The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; the fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the rules of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb. Moreover, by them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

Psalms 19:7-11

A photograph of a forest scene. In the foreground, there's a stream reflecting the trees and sky. The ground is covered with fallen leaves and branches. Several tree trunks are visible, some with moss. The background shows more trees and a clear sky.

Who can discern his errors?
Declare me innocent from hidden faults. Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me! Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

Psalms 19:7-11

A photograph of a forest scene. In the foreground, there is a body of water, possibly a pond or a slow-moving stream, which reflects the sky and the surrounding trees. The trees are mostly bare, suggesting a late autumn or winter setting. The ground is covered with fallen leaves and twigs. The overall atmosphere is serene and contemplative.

Psalm 19:12-14

For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!"
